

FIFTH ANNUAL

HOMETOWN HEROES

Ordinary People, Extraordinary Courage.

Do you know someone special who demonstrates extraordinary courage and endless unselfishness, serves as an inspiration and/or eases the lives of others? At this year's Hometown Heroes, help the American Red Cross in Fayette County thank these individuals.

Say Thank You — Nominate Your Hero Today!

Nomination forms available at the Red Cross or online at Fayette.redcross.org

Criteria for nominations:

1. Candidate must live or work in Fayette County.
2. Candidate must have demonstrated one or more of the following humanitarian acts within the last 18 months or has demonstrated a lifetime commitment to the community.
  - Exemplifies the humanitarian values of the American Red Cross
  - Offers his/her life to save another person
  - Shows extraordinary courage in a given situation
  - Is completely unselfish in their actions in working with others
  - Is an inspiration for others to follow
  - Makes the life of another easier or more comfortable

Hometown Heroes 2009

Taylor Barrett
 Chad Lowe
 Matthew Stanley
 Jack DeWeese
 Tammy Kirkpatrick

American Red Cross

Hometown Heroes in Fayette County

Awards Program and Breakfast Event

Tuesday, March 23, 2010

Mahan Building, Washington Court House

7:30 - 8 a.m. Registration and breakfast

8 - 9 a.m. Award presentation

Presenting sponsor:

Print sponsor: The Print Shop

Media sponsor: Record-Herald

Breakfast sponsor: Eagles Lodge #423

American Red Cross

Award sponsors:

Merchants National Bank
 Parrett Insurance Agency, Inc.
 Fayette County Memorial Hospital
 Carroll Halliday Ford Lincoln Mercury
 Fayette Co. Travel, Tourism, Convention Bureau